
GLOBAL AND INTERNATIONAL STUDIES

Degree Handbook

This handbook provides majors and minors with all the undergraduate degree options available in the Center for Global and International Studies. First, the concentrations within the BA degree appear, including the flexible Global and International path and the more focused regional paths. Second, all of the minor options follow, with the requirements for each. We hope students explore all the unique options available and, for further inquiry, feel free to contact the Director of Undergraduate Studies, Professor Brian Lagotte (lagotte@ku.edu) or the GIST academic advisor Nick Pellett (npellett@ku.edu).

Course Number	Course Title
	* Students must complete GIST 610 before GIST 698 or GIST 699.

Issues in Global Studies (9 hours/3 units)

Majors must take three courses from an approved list of GIST courses focusing on contemporary global themes on subjects such as human trafficking, the global environment, terrorism, transnational migration and borders, global issues in gender, citizenship, indigenous peoples, the global economic system, and globalization at the 300-level or above. Please see the approved course list below for all potential Issues in Global Studies courses.

Note: Courses offered as “GIST 550: Issues in Global Studies” (various topics) are always approved to fulfill this requirement.

International Electives (9 hours/3 units)

Majors must take three courses from the list of approved international elective courses at the 300-level or above. Students are strongly encouraged to strategically select a cluster of three courses that would help them to fulfill KU Core requirements or maximize a double-major with another program. For example, students double-majoring in geography or history should select their international electives from the list of approved GEOG or HIST courses. Students may, however, select from any of the approved courses available. Please see the approved course list below for all potential International Elective courses.

Below is the Approved Course List for both International Electives and Issues in Global Studies.

- The columns on the right identify the requirement(s) that each course fulfills.
- For quick identification, the courses approved for Issues in Global Studies are in bold, red text.
